Citroen C4 Cactus to meet the needs of the Spanish production

PSA Peugeot Citroen (PSA) will increase its located near Madrid Villaverde factory production, in order to meet the increasing market demand for the Citroen C4 Cactus.
The plant manager Jose Carlos Robredo said, the Citroen C4 Cactus achieved great success in the European market, and once the models in the European launch, daily production capacity will grow by 20%.
Citroen C4 Cactus target groups for the small car to seek practical and vehicle operating costs lower buyers. And the car door is provided with a protection plate. According to analyst forecasts, the Citroen C4 Cactus annual sales of between 50000 and 100000.