French actress Claudia works "two day night" in Oscar

French actress Marion Claudia and the movie "two days of night" director Dalton brothers will be with the expedition to Oscar. It is reported, the film "two days of night" will represent and 82 other countries - Belgium films compete with "the Oscar for best foreign film" award.

Reported that Dalton brother of Jean Pierre Dalton said that the central character they chose Marion Claudia to the interpretation of the "two days of night", a man named Sandra female workers, this is their first time with big name stars cooperation. It is reported that Claudia won the "rose life" in a corner of Edith Piaf in 2008 won the Oscar awards. Claudia said that the cooperation with the Belgian director is one of the most wonderful cooperation in her acting career.

The Dalton brothers and Claudia on the night of November 8th, attended a grand ball. The report pointed out that the Oscar best foreign language film in the competition is very fierce, Claudia still has a long way to go.