

Lincoln the new car will carry a Richway sound 2016 MKX water test

Lincoln has announced plans for the distribution of high-quality Revel sound system model in the future, the use of models will be the 2016 MKX.

In 10 years as a partner, Lincoln is the only one Cai Rongrui Wei (Revel) "high quality and the visual technology" car manufacturers. The company has identified three types of sound listening mode configuration, including traditional stereo type, the audience mode (create concert effect) and "surround type (in order to bring the audience immersive experience)".

This cooperation, Lincoln would not reveal too many details, only that the two sides will work together to ensure that supply the audio system according to each vehicle will be presented unique, and accurate sound quality". According to Lincoln, global director Matt VanDyke said, "Lincoln and Revel cooperation is to achieve extraordinary luxury car a step. Revel will provide the best quality of home audio system, this is also the expectation of extraordinary experience of Lincoln passenger can enjoy".

